LOGAN DRY GOODS CO.

Of Local Interest.

Go to church.
The Chute's dry.
Put a tax on idlers.
Sweep your sidewalks.
Small pox at Hubble.
Prospects fine for a good watermelon crop.
The rains were glorious and did a world of good.
Coons at the depot are still a nuisance. Stop it.
The rains have made truck grow as rapidly as Jack's bean stalk.

A number of new cottages could find ready renters. Invest some capital at home, gentlemen.

Massage, Shampoo, Manicure, Chir-pody, Mrs M A Harris also making hair braids and rates. Shop in the Storms Building over Potts Bros. 354

Several new pavements are being put down on depot street. This is a step in the right direction. Now make those people elsewhere about town do likewise.

Don't bake over a hot stove. Order your breads, etc., from Zimmer's.
They have everything in the eating line, and the restaurant is one of the best institutions in the town.

Not many went on the Cincinnati excursion Sunday, the rain coming down in torrents about train time.
These excursions will run every other Sunday. Fare $1.50 for the round trip.

Court Day Visitors.

Among those who attended county court at Richmond, Monday, were R.
L. Elkin, Thos. Anderson, W B Burton, D G Ross, Am Bourne and Robt.
Powell. They report a small crowd and business moderate.

Supper at Stony Point.

There will be a box supper at Stony Point school house Saturday night, June 6th, for the benefit of Fairview church. All friends of the church are cordially invited to be present, the ladies with boxes of supper and the gentlemen prepared to buy.

Only a Matter of Time.

The practice of putting "high life" on horses and dogs has become quite a fad lately. This causes much fun, but its only a matter of a very short time when the wrong man's animal is treated to a dose, and some fellow will wish he "hadn't." You know there are some curious people in the world, and a few who back up what they think.

For the next three weeks the editor will be away from the office on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays of each week, but, as we have the most satisfactory help we have ever had, business will run along as usual, and you can get anything in the printing line you want.

Exchange.

The Ladies' Helping Hand Society, of the Baptist church, will have an exchange at the Gaines Hotel next Saturday afternoon, beginning at two o'clock. Ice cream and cake will be served, and dressed chickens, cakes, etc., will be on hand for sale cheap.
Everybody invited. It

Property Withdrawn.

Quite a number of people, among them several capitalists, gathered on the Fisher and Herring premises, Tuesday afternoon, the day set apart for the sale of that excellent farm.
Bidding was lively for a while, but the farm was withdrawn after $71 was bid, per acre. Many who know the place, say that it is worth $80 per acre.

A Failure.

The crushed rock is proving a great er failure every day. The machine crushes it all to pieces, and several heavy wagons finish the job. The result is a mud hole in wet weather and a cloud of dust in dry. The old time hand broken rock didn't do this, so why not return to the old way? Take up some of the work-house gang and put them astride the rock pile.

For Another Term.

On page four will be found Prof.
Mannix' report of the Graded Schools for the term just closed. It is interesting reading and we print it in full.
The trustees have employed Professor Mannix for another year, much to the delight of the patrons. The school has done great good under his management, the discipline being exceptionally fine. All the other teachers will remain next year, except Miss Knapp West and Prof. Sullivan, who did not apply for the places.

Newspaper Change.

Danville Advocate:—Mr Samuel W.
Menefee has purchased a half interest in Mr. Owen McIntyre's lease on the Kentucky Advocate and assumed charge Monday morning. He has had several years' experience in a light way in the newspaper field, and is a thoroughly capable business man and hustler with few equals. It was necessary for Mr. McIntyre to take in a partner on account of the rapid growth of the Kentucky Farmer, which now requires the entire time of one man. The Farmer now practically goes into the home of every farmer in Boyle, Lincoln, Garrard and Mercer counties, and to accomplish such a record testifies to the popularity of the paper in unspeakable terms.

Lovely Selection.

The Richmond Register mentions the appointment as follows: The Richmond Lodge of Elks has formally chosen Miss Carlisle Walker to represent No. 581 as sponsor in the coming Elk State Reunion. Miss Walker has been notified of her selection, and authorized to select her own maids of honor.
The choice of the lodge is a good one indeed. Miss Walker is a daughter of Col. J Stone Walker, one of the handsomest and most accomplished belles, and in every way qualified to reflect credit on the lodge she has been invested to represent. A large and enthusiastic body of Elks will accompany her to Lexington, and assist in upholding the reputation of B. P. O. E.
581.

Representatives Should Have Gone.

The Commercial Convention held in Louisville this week was of very great importance to the business interests of the state. The business men of Louisville are made extensive preparations for the entertainment of the delegates, an interesting program having been arranged and reduced rates obtained from the railroads. The city of Louisville is doing her part toward developing the state's resources and if the people out in the state would do one-third as much, Kentucky would soon get out of her commercial snail's pace.

Will Not Run.

Former Governor W. O. Bradley will not allow his name to be presented for Governor at the Republican State convention in July. For some time there have been persistent rumors that Gov.
Bradley would be a candidate for the nomination and that his friends would attempt to stampede the convention for him, but the following statement from him puts an end to such talk.

"For months partial and zealous friends throughout the State have been urging that my name should be presented for Governor at the July convention. In every instance I have most positively declined to allow it, and state now, as heretofore, that under no circumstances will it be done.
I have recently located here to practice law, and this being true could not for a moment think of becoming a candidate for any office.

"Persistent and arduous political services for a third of a century should certainly excuse one from a continuation.

"I am most profoundly grateful to those who have shown their preference and confidence."

A THRIVING CITY.

Winchester, the Beautiful Capital of Clarke County. An Up-To-The-Minute, Prosperous Town.

It has been necessary for the editor of The Record to undergo treatment by a specialist and spend several days in the beautiful city of Winchester. Although we have passed through there many times, yet we had not expected to find a city of nearly eight thousand people, and one of so much push and enterprise. The neatly kept store houses, tasty dwellings and beautifully kept front yards quickly make the impression upon a stranger that the occupants are thrifty, well-to-do "hustlers." The show windows are kept tastily dressed, free from the cobwebs and shop-worn goods too often paraded for view in Kentucky towns. A line of electric cars affords splendid transportation to the trains and about the city. A sure sign of the prosperity of the city is the many new buildings being put up.
On every hand the sound of saw and hammer is heard, and we were told that every mechanic and laborer in the city had all the work he could do.
There is no mush-room boom about the town, but a steady, substantial growth. She has a large territory to draw from, and the building of the L.
& E railroad has brought in additional trade which used to go to other towns. Sitting in front of the Reese House Saturday afternoon, we had a fine chance to size up the people, as most of the male population was enjoying the holiday, and the good women, as usual on Saturday afternoons, were taking in the shops. We have never seen a lot of prettier girls, handsomer women or better looking men, as a rule, in any town. In most towns, one who has to kill a little time about a hotel, must sit and listen to a lot of town loafers, dressed in $2.50 suits, who show by their dress that they toil not, neither do they spin. Not so in Winchester. The men are all well dressed, and have the air of refinement and gentlemanly instincts which is pleasantly noticeable. The town has a splendid water works system, but the supply is not at all satisfactory. We were told the supply comes from surface water, and gives out every year. There is a strong probability, we are told, that the pipe line would be extended to the river, and to a man up a tree, it looks like folly to put off doing this, for a town of Winchester's size and enterprise, a sufficient water supply would soon bring in enough factories to more than justify the outlay.

Landlord Boswell, of the Reese House, gives personal attention to the running of the hotel, and certainly knows how to manage, as it is one of the best in the state. We called on our old friends, Messrs Biehn & Donovan, at the Democrat office, and are under many obligations for some never-to-be-forgotten favors. They have one of the best equipped plants in the state, and, as they look personally after, they give their customers nothing but the very best printing to be had. The Democrat has been among our favorite exchanges the eight years we have been wielding the quill, and readers of The Record are about as well acquainted with it as we are, for the reason that our scissors are applied to the Democrat almost every week.

Thinking that by so doing we may put some of our readers on to a way to obtain relief, and not to tell "troubles," we wish to say a word in regard to a new manner of treatment for rheumatism, insomnia, weakness and many other troubles which medicine frequently fails to cure. About twelve years ago, we had a severe case of typhoid fever. Being just at that age where a man knows more than at any other period of his life, a smart Alex, we got out too soon, suffered a relapse and came near passing in our checks, the fever "settling" in our leg. After several years of intense suffering, the trouble left, apparently. Some weeks ago, by over work and exertion, it returned, and we could scarcely walk, the veins and leaders being so tightly swollen and drawn. We were advised to try the new treatment, osteopathy, and went to Winchester to see Dr. Stubbiefield. He is an expert, has been in Winchester for nearly two years, and we found him not only thoroughly competent but a splendid christian gentleman. Some doctors laugh at this treatment and say there's nothing in it, but they do so from the simple reason that they don't know anything about it. The treatment has greatly helped the writer, and we know of others who have fared as well.
What more do you want? The treatment is not expensive, it is very convenient to go to Winchester, and we most cheerfully recommend him to those needing treatment as thoroughly reliable, competent and in every way fitted for the work he is doing.

The Sun-Sentinel is located in one of the best places in the world, a church. The church mice, so often spoken of as being so "poor," will surely starve now, that a newspaper is located in the building. The house makes a splendid office, and its safe to say the roof never sheltered people who do more for their fellowmen "without money and without price" than the newspaper men. L. L.

Mayor R. Kinnaird and Judge M D.
Hughes were at Paint Lick on business Wednesday.

Bring your job work to The Record.

A Good Move.

The Burley Tobacco Growers Association company, which has organized with an authorized capital of $5,000,000 and which has been approved by the leading tobacco men in the state, had a representative here, court day. A local organization was effected, with Wade Walker, President and Sam J Cochran Secretary. Quite a number of our farmers agreed to sell their crops to that company, as the prices agreed upon are much higher than those received heretofore. They will receive half as much more and prices will range from 5 cents to 18 cents. The object is to free the farmers from the low prices paid by the Tobacco Trust and Combine, and they will succeed.

Women's Missionary Conference.

The Annual District Conference of Women's Missionary Societies of the Methodist church will meet in the Memorial Methodist church of Lancaster, Wednesday, Thursday, June 10 and 11. Representation of the District includes counties of Madison, Jessamine, Mercer, Boyle, Pulaski, Lincoln and Garrard. Cordial invitation is extended to membership of Societies in Sister churches of Lancaster and Garrard, to attend the sessions.

The following subjects from a partial programme:
"Bird's Eye View of the W. A. M.
Work and how it is Supported," Mrs.
Dickey; "Our Talents, God's Agents," Miss Hobbs; "The United States as a Mission Field," Dr Pearce; "Best use of our Literature," Mrs Overstreet; "How to Increase Interest and Membership in our Auxiliaries," Mrs Litsey; "Our School," Miss Ruple; "Young People's place in the Home Missionary Society," Mrs. Armstrong.

Narrow Escape.

What might have been a tragedy was averted by the presence of mind of Mr Tom Scott last Monday night while he and his sister, Mrs C C Glass, were on their way to the Institute to hear the Chicago Glee Club. Mr Scott was driving and as they reached the gate going into the Fitch farm, the gate of Hanly, the horse shied and drew the buggy over a steep embankment, upsetting the vehicle. As the buggy turned over Mr Scott jumped for the horse's head, and when he turned, he discovered his sister pinned between the buggy top and the picket fence, but could not go to her rescue, without leaving the horse, which he knew would be perilous. Although painfully injured with a sprained ankle, which will keep her on crutches for several weeks, Mrs Glass managed to extricate herself and crawl out over the top of the buggy. The vehicle was then righted and Mrs Glass taken home where physicians attended her.

CENTRAL RECORD.

LOUIS LANDRAM.

Lancaster, Ky. June 5, 1903.

The Baltimore & Ohio railroad company has inaugurated a movement which should be put in practice and enforced all over the country. Notice has been sent out from headquarters that intoxicated persons are not to be allowed on the trains, and the employees must see that they do not board the cars. That this will meet with the hearty approval of a suffering public, no one doubts. Here in Kentucky it is seldom, indeed, that you can make a journey without the car being entered and the passengers annoyed, the women frightened and be compelled to listen to a lot of disgusting language by some drunken tough. But, as is usually the case, some jackleg lawyers would say such a rule could not be enforced, and if the train men should put off some detestable set, some little 2x4 lawyer would induce him to sue the railroad, and a jury of backwoods snake-hunters give a big judgment against the railroad. The truth of the matter is, the railroad companies are entitled to the police protection of every officer in the state, but do they get it? No, not on your life. Instead, the railroad companies catch the very devil every time they go into a court house, and if the employees should put some tough off the trains, suit would be immediately brought, and a big verdict promptly given against the company for "injury to one of our free citizens, e-gad, sah." Railroads in Kentucky stand about as much show as a snow ball in perdition, and they readily recognize the fact that they must permit their trains to be invaded by drunken toughs, and grin and bear it. What Kentucky needs is more railroads and fewer jackleg lawyers, sham courts and politicians.

Every year, when preparations for the meeting of the press gang are being made, some of the elder brethren of the quill begin to wish for some of the "old guard" to be on hand, for an old time meeting, etc. We know, personally, that for the past three years special invitations have been sent to the "old guard," to the older members of the craft, and, in fact, the younger ones have gone out in the highways and byways and urged them to come, but only a few of those who kick up the racket would come. All that polly rot makes us tired. If some of those fellows could hear discussions by Bob Brown, Harry Somers, Tom Watkins, Green Keller, Jim Allen, Charley Howard, Harry McCarty, Lew Brown, Charley Hart, Charley Meacham and others, they would think there were a few live wires remaining since their departure from the fold, and the Kentucky Press Association of today is a "real Kentucky press association." The association has accomplished more in the last three years for the advancement of newspaper men's interests than it ever did during the 'good old days.'

This is the time of year when the colleges are turning out preachers and lawyers in job lots. The Record suggests that the whole layout be coraled and put to work in Breathitt county. No part of the legal field is in worse condition, and no part of the Lord's vineyard is more in need of a good weeding. If the young attorneys can succeed with such cattle in a court-house, and the preachers civilize them in churches, its safe to say they can successfully work on the people elsewhere. By all means send 'em to Breathitt.

Over on the Cincinnati Southern railroad last week, a man crawled under an engine to take a nap. The engineer not having time to climb down and hunt all around his engine to see if any people were under there, started the machine and killed the man. The company should be made to pay heavy damages for owning an engine, for having one in their possession, more especially for wanting to use it when a fellow desired to take a nap under it.

Much is being written of the alleged "discovery" that a bee sting is good for rheumatism. Doubtless the sting will cause the sufferer to pick up his bed and walk. And, too, you might get behind him with a pitchfork and cause even a livelier step than that produced by the sting.

Members of the Kentucky press will greatly miss Mr. H H Gratz, who has just retired from the profession, after having been in the editorial harness for so many years. His paper, the Lexington Gazette, has been turned over to Mr. E S Kincaid.

To the Press boys: We were in Lexington last week, and Desha Breckinridge said the mint crop was coming up splendidly, and bid fair to be a record breaker. Remember the dates of the Association's meetings there? Well, yes.

The annual commencements will soon be over, and those giddy young fellows who have toiled hard to learn big words and foot ball will have to look around for a job of measuring calico or pounding a type writer.

The President's daughter is "keeping the name of her new automobile a profound secret," says the Washington dispatches. The earth will cease revolving until this great secret is given to the public.

The sweet girl graduate is "it" today. Gee, but "Spring" and "Flowers" are catching the devil.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Is everywhere recognized as the one remedy that can always be depended upon and that is pleasant to take. Mr W D Marksbury, of Marcellus, was the guest Sunday, of Mrs Margaret Sutton and family.

Mr and Mrs Milton Sweeney, of Stanford, were guests Tuesday of Rev W M Stallings and wife.

We wish to announce again that there will be a Roll Call at the Fork church Sunday, June 7. All members requested to attend:

Wanted.

We would like to ask, through the columns of your paper, if there is any person who has used Green's August Flower for the cure of Indigestion, Dyspepsia, and Liver Troubles that has not been cured—and we also mean their results, such as sour stomach, fermentation of food habitual costiveness, nervous dyspepsia, headaches, despondent feelings, sleeplessness—in fact any trouble connected with the stomach or liver? This medicine has been sold for many years in all civilized countries, and we wish to correspond with you and send you one of our books free of cost. If you never tried August Flower, try a 25 cent bottle first. We have never known of its failing. If so, something more serious is the matter with you. The 25 cent size has just been introduced this year. Regular size 75 cents. At Stormes' Drug Store. G. G. Green, Woodbury, N. J. Aug. 29

BUCKEYE.

W B Lawson bought lambs from several parties here this week for 5 and 5 1/2 ct.

J W Hill bought a nice lot of hogs from Sanders & Walker at 5 1/2 a lb.

Rev Timberlake, of Nicholasville, spent the latter part of last week with the family of A C Miles and preached Sunday morning and evening.

Mrs Will Simpson and little son, Crede are spending this week with relatives in Nicholasville.

Misses Lela and Myrtle Hendren, of Madison, were guests of Miss Hattie Jones last week.

Mrs Mary Teater and daughter, Mrs Wheeler, of Mercer, are visiting Mrs Herod Ray.

Mr J G House had a valuable barn to burn near here last Wednesday night, burning several hundred barrels of corn, several tons of hay, 5 mules valued at $100 apiece, all farming implements besides other valuables proving the most disastrous fire we have had near here for sometime.

Mrs Herod Ray entertained a few friends last Friday it being her 51st birthday. She was the recipient of many valuable and useful presents among them a surprise of a ten dollar bill in her plate at dinner.

WALLACETON.

W T Kidd and family of Berea were in town Thursday.

Geo Smith and wife have moved to the "Grandma" Cade house here in town.

Rev M K Pasco and wife, of Berea, were the guests of C H Baker and family Friday.

Miss Stella Jones, of Jackson, but now a student at Berea, was with the family of J A Baker Saturday and Sunday.

Rev C M Baker and family, of Liberty Center, O., are expected this week for a visit to their many relatives and friends here.

Robert Gentry is building an addition of two rooms to his house, thus adding greatly to its convenience.

An organ has recently been placed in the Baptist church to be used in Sunday-school and church worship. This will add to the excellency of the music which at present is not bad.

It was our privilege and pleasure on Sunday, the 31st ult., to attend the fiftieth Anniversary of the church at Berea and to listen to the address of Prof John A R Rogers, who was the first Principal of the school at Berea. Prof Rogers gave valuable assistance, more than 30 years ago, in building up our Sunday school here which has since sent out many of its members as teachers and preachers to various parts of the United States.

McCREARY.

Miss Arkie Rue of this place surprised her friends last Saturday by driving to Lancaster and was married to a Mr Preston of Stone.

Mr S A Hill entertained his friends May 26th it being his 21st birthday. A nice supper was served and over a hundred people were present, and all report an enjoyable time.

Mr John Forbes and wife were visitors of Lish Forbes family last week.

Mrs. John Lackey was considerably surprised last Sunday morning when, in spite of the down pour of rain, her children, friends, and neighbors began to come in with well filled baskets to help celebrate her 71st birthday. All seemed to enjoy the day and especially the bountiful dinner, and we are hoping that she may live to enjoy many more.

When a man calls a woman an angel she ought to question his veracity—but she never does.

Do You Enjoy What You Eat?

If you don't your food does not do you much good. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is the remedy that every one should take when there is anything wrong with the stomach. There is no way to maintain the health and strength of mind and body except through the stomach. The stomach must be kept healthy, pure and sweet or the strength will let down and disease will set up. No appetite, loss of strength, nervousness, headache, constipation, bad breath, sour risings, rifting, indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles are quickly cured by the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. Sold by Frisbie. 1m
